What is this type of insurance?

This is a Master Policy for the benefit of Group Members of the Countryside Alliance. This is public liability insurance to insure you against legal liability for bodily injury to a third party and third party property damage. Cover will only be provided whilst legally taking part in recognised activities.

What are the Recognised Activities?

"Recognised Activities" means taking part legally (for recreational purposes) including officiating, assisting or spectating in hunting, exercising hounds, hound trailing, hunt following, lurcher work, whippet racing, terrier work, dog shows, shooting including sporting shooting, clay pigeon shooting, rifle shooting, target shooting, angling (including sea, coarse and game angling) deer stalking, falconry, ferreting, vermin control, voluntary unpaid duties at shows and events, field trials, conservation work, archery and coursing. (For the avoidance of doubt, all other equestrian activities, not including hunting with horses and ponies, are excluded).

Cover includes ancillary activities in connection with any of the Recognised Recreational Activities above including but not limited to the construction, preparation, completion and taking down of equipment and amenities used in connection with the Recognised Recreational Activities.

Failure to meet your obligations could result in a claim being rejected, a reduction in the amount we pay or the cancellation of your policy.

When and how do I pay?

- Premium for this insurance is included within your membership fee paid to the Countryside Alliance.

When does the cover start and end?

- The period of insurance depends on when you become a member of the Countryside Alliance. It starts from the beginning of your Countryside Alliance membership or your membership renewal date in 2026 and ends 12 months later.

How do I cancel the contract?

As this is a group policy, this insurance does not provide you with the statutory right to cancel within 14 days. If you cancel your Membership of the Countryside Alliance or do not renew your membership, your insurance cover will stop from the time of such cancellation or non-renewal.
