Your Van Insurance

Excesses

What you need to pay if you make a claim

No one really likes paying excesses, but they form part of your insurance contract and can have a direct effect on the price you pay for your insurance. You must pay the excesses shown in your schedule as part of your claim.

More than one excess can apply – Example: an additional excess applies if the driver of your van is aged 24 or under or has held their full licence for less than 12 months;

You must pay the excess regardless of whether or not you were responsible for the accident or loss;

If you are claiming under section 5 – Replacement keys and locks or section 6 – Uninsured driver protection then no excess applies.

Let's use an example . . .

Ben crashed his van and it can't be repaired

The market value of Ben's van is £5,000

Ben's insurance has a compulsory excess of £350

Ben chooses a voluntary excess of £100

Ben pays £450 towards the claim and we pay £4,550

£100
Voluntary

You will have to pay the repairer the total excess as shown in your schedule.

Any repairs carried out by our approved repairer are guaranteed as long as you own your vehicle (or for five years from the date you transfer ownership of your vehicle to someone else).

You must only use the courtesy van in the United Kingdom and under the approved repairer's terms of use.

Recovering your vehicle

If your vehicle is damaged and it can't be driven, we'll pay the cost of moving your vehicle to the nearest approved repairer or place where it can be stored safely. If the repairer is within the territorial limits, we'll also pay the cost of returning your vehicle home after it has been repaired.

We'll pay for loss of or damage to your vehicle caused by:

- accident or malicious damage (if your policy cover is comprehensive);
- fire; or
- theft or attempted theft.

If we choose to make a cash payment to settle your claim, the most we'll pay is the market value of your vehicle (as it is at the time of the loss or damage).

If you're paying for your vehicle under a finance agreement, we'll first pay the finance company and then pay any amount that is left over to you.

If your vehicle is leased or on contract hire, we'll pay the lease or contract hire company the amount needed to settle the agreement or the market value of your vehicle, whichever is less.

Any payment we make will be less the total excess as shown in your schedule.

If your vehicle has a private registration plate, we'll give you 30 days from the date a settlement value is agreed to transfer the private registration onto a DVLA Retention Certificate in your name. If you don't tell us that you want to keep the private registration plate, we'll dispose of it with your vehicle.

Courtesy Van

A courtesy van is only available if your vehicle can be repaired and you use our approved repairer. If your vehicle is a total loss (a write-off) or stolen and not recovered, we can't provide a courtesy van.

Settling claims

If the loss or damage to your vehicle is covered under your policy, we'll choose whether to arrange for repairs to your vehicle or settle your claim by giving you a cash payment.

We will refund medical expenses if you or anyone in your vehicle is injured as a result of an accident involving your vehicle.

Benefits you receive

We will pay up to £300 for each injured person.

Medical expenses can be confusing so let's explain this further

If you are injured in an accident you may have to pay for emergency treatment and prescriptions. This section covers these costs.

Your no-claims bonus

How your no-claims bonus works

If you make a claim, even if you were not responsible (for example, if your vehicle is stolen or damaged by vandals) this will affect your no-claims bonus. You could lose part or all of your no-claims bonus. If a claim is made on your policy, your price may increase at renewal. We will not reduce your no-claims bonus if the damage to your vehicle was caused by an uninsured driver (as long as the conditions set out in section 6 – Uninsured driver protection, are met).

We apply a step-back policy that reduces your no-claims bonus for each claim made when you renew your policy, depending on the claim or claims made. For an example of what would happen if you made a claim within the period of insurance, please see the table below.

How your no-claims bonus (NCB) would be affected at renewal if you made a claim or claims during the period of insurance

Number of years' no-claims bonus currently available (without NCB protection)	No-claims bonus at the next renewal (without NCB protection)
	No claims	One claim within the policy period	Two or more claims within the policy period

Note: In the table above a claim is where we have made payment for any loss, damage or injury to a third party or where any costs paid for damage to your vehicle cannot be, or have not yet been, recovered.

Your no-claims bonus

If you have chosen to protect your no-claims bonus

Protecting your no-claims bonus allows you to make a claim without your no-claims bonus being reduced.

If you chose to protect your no-claims bonus this will be shown on your schedule, and you will only lose your no-claims bonus if you make more than two claims in a five-year period. If a claim is made on your policy, your price may increase at renewal.

The table below shows how your no-claims bonus would be affected if you made a claim or claims and you have protected your no-claims bonus.

How your protected no-claims bonus would be affected at renewal if you made a claim or claims during the period of insurance

Number of years' no-claims bonus currently available (with NCB protection)	No-claims bonus at the next renewal (with NCB protection)
	No claims	One claim within the policy period	Two claims within the policy period	Three claims within the policy period
4	5	4	4	2
5	6	5	5	3
6	7	6	6	4
7	8	7	7	5
8	9	8	8	6
9	10	9	9	7

Note: In the table above a claim is where we have made payment for any loss, damage or injury to a third party or where any costs paid for damage to your vehicle cannot be, or have not yet been, recovered.

If you have a minor incident with another person, but you are not claiming for the damage or loss to your vehicle, another person may still make a claim against your policy. In these circumstances we may not allow your no-claims bonus until we are confident no claim will be made.

Cancelling your policy

If you cancel your policy

If you cancel your policy within 14 days of buying it or receiving your documents (whichever is later), we will refund you for the exact number of days left on the policy, less an administration charge of £10 plus Insurance Premium Tax (at the rate that applies at the time). We will also do this if you cancel your policy within 14 days after its renewal date. If you tell us before your renewal is due that you want to cancel and payment has been made, we will give you a full refund.

If you cancel the policy at any other time by letting us or your broker know and you have paid for your insurance policy in full by a single payment we will refund the exact number of days left on your policy, less an administration charge of £32 plus Insurance Premium Tax (at the rate that applies at the time).

If you have chosen to pay for your insurance policy by instalments you must continue to pay your monthly direct debit. We will refund any overpayment, less an administration charge of £32 plus Insurance Premium Tax (at the rate that applies at the time).

If any claim has been made by you or against you in the current period of insurance, we will not refund any amount you have paid.

When we or your broker may cancel the policy

We (or your broker) may cancel your policy by sending you seven days' written notice to your last known address if we (or your broker) have a good reason for doing so. Some examples of situations where we (or your broker) might do this include:

- you not making a payment for your insurance policy when it is due;
- you not providing proof of no-claims discount or vehicle security;
- you providing us with incorrect information, and failing to put this right when we ask you to.
- you using threatening or abusive behaviour or language, or being intimidating towards our staff or suppliers

If we (or your broker) cancel your policy, we will refund the amount paid for the exact number of days left on the policy less an administration charge of £32 plus Insurance Premium Tax (at the rate that applies at the time).

If you have made a claim or expect to make a claim in the current period of insurance, you will not receive any refund.

If we (or your broker) cancel your policy on the grounds of fraud, the cancellation may be immediate and we may keep any amount you have paid. We may also tell the police about the circumstances.

We don't cover any loss, damage or liability arising from an incident if you or anyone insured under the policy is convicted of a drink driving or drug driving related offence. We have the right to recover from you any amounts which we pay before their conviction or which we have to pay by law.

However, we will provide the cover needed under the Road Traffic Acts for the events shown above.

We won't pay for any loss, damage or damages that you have to legally pay for which are the result of the following:

- War, revolution or any similar event.

General exclusions

When we really can't cover you. Please make sure you read this page

- A deliberate act by anybody insured under this policy.
- Any harmful or incorrect medical treatment or help given at or from your vehicle.

However, we will provide the cover needed under the Road Traffic Acts for the events shown above.

Contract

We won't pay for any legal liability which arises under a contract or agreement unless the person, company or firm claiming cover under this policy would have had that liability if the contract or agreement hadn't existed.

We won't pay for any loss, damage or damages that you have to legally pay for which legal proceedings have been brought or judgement given in a court outside the United Kingdom, unless the proceedings or judgement are in a foreign country because your vehicle was being used in that country and we had agreed to provide insurance in that country.

However, we will provide the cover needed under the Road Traffic Acts for the events shown above.

What is an exclusion?

Exclusions list specific events, circumstances or situations where we do not provide cover for loss, damage or liability. Exclusions protect us from unreasonable risk, and apply to all of the policy sections.

General conditions

How to make sure your policy is valid. Please make sure you read this page

Your duty

We will only provide the insurance cover set out in this policy if:

- you keep to the conditions of the policy; and
- the statement of fact doesn't contain any fact or declaration which is not true to the best of your knowledge or belief.

Changes in circumstances

You must tell us, as soon as possible, about any change in circumstances as this could affect your insurance cover.

Examples of these changes include:

- any changes to your vehicle, including engine modifications and changes such as fitting alloy wheels, spoilers or skirts;
- any problem to do with the health of any person who will drive your vehicle;
- a motoring accident, insurance claim, motoring conviction or fixed penalty offence involving any person who will drive your vehicle;
- a change in ownership of your vehicle;
- a change in use of your vehicle;
- if any insured driver changes jobs;
- changes to your address or the address where your vehicle is usually kept; and
- changes to the number of vehicles owned or regularly driven by you or by members of your family who live with you.

If a person whose details you have not already given us is likely to drive your vehicle, you must give us their full details.

Please note that if you make any changes to your policy before the renewal date, you may have to pay an additional amount (including an administration fee of £15 plus Insurance Premium Tax at the rate that applies at the time). Please speak to your insurance broker or other person acting on our behalf, if you want to make a change to your policy before the renewal date.

Other insurance

If any other insurance policies cover the same loss, damage or liability as this policy, we'll only pay our share of the amount of the claim.

Taking care of your vehicle and any trailer or caravan you are towing

You must take all reasonable steps to prevent loss of or damage to your vehicle. You must also keep any trailer or caravan towed by your vehicle in a safe and roadworthy condition.

Our right to recover a payment from you

If we have to settle a claim under the law of any country and we wouldn't have paid that claim under the terms of the policy, we can recover from you the amount of any payment we have had to make.

Fraud

We won't pay for any claim you make if:

- it is dishonest;
- it is exaggerated; or
- you or any insured driver makes a false statement or provides false documents to support a claim (or you knowingly allowing someone else to do this).

We may also tell the police and your policy will be cancelled, as shown under 'Cancelling your policy' on page 29.

Claims procedure

After any loss, damage or accident, you and any person insured by this policy must:

- report the incident to us as soon as possible by phoning our Claims Helpline on 0330 024 2240;
- give us all the information we ask for, including details of anyone else involved;
- send us every letter, claim or legal document immediately without answering it; and
- tell us immediately if there is to be a prosecution, inquest or other court proceedings.

General conditions

How to make sure your policy is valid. Please make sure you read this page

Defending or settling a claim

You mustn't admit liability for any loss or damage, or make any offer to pay any claim. We are entitled to decide exactly how to carry out any legal proceedings or settle any claim and to:

- take over and defend or settle any claim in the name of any person, company or firm insured by the policy; and
- take legal action in your name, or in the name of any person, company or firm insured by the policy, to get back any payment we make.

Vehicle sharing

This policy doesn't insure anyone to use your vehicle for hire or reward. However, if passengers in your vehicle make a payment towards the cost of a journey, we won't class this as use for hire or reward if:

- your vehicle isn't designed or adapted to carry more than five people including the driver;
- the passengers are not being carried in the course of the business of carrying passengers; and
- the total of the payments made by all the passengers doesn't include a profit.

Service and repair

This policy will continue to provide insurance cover for you under policy section 2 while your vehicle is with motor traders or their employees, being serviced or repaired.

However, the insurance cover for other people, companies or firms referred to in section 2 won't apply. Other sections of the policy which apply for the type of cover shown in your schedule will also continue to apply if your vehicle is being driven by an insured driver or is not being driven at the time of the incident.

Renewing your policy

We may automatically renew your policy on the renewal date. If we do this, we'll write to you before the renewal date with details of the renewal terms. If you pay for your insurance policy by instalments, we'll continue to take payments from your bank account for the new amount. If you don't want to renew, but you only tell your broker or us after the renewal date, we will work out the refund as though you had cancelled the policy as shown in before and after 'Cancelling your policy', on page 29.

Your price may increase at renewal.

The price that you pay when you take out a new policy with us is calculated based on current rates. The price may increase at renewal next year and any following years after that.

Paying for your insurance

If you haven't paid for your full insurance policy and you make a claim under this policy, we may deduct the amount from your claim settlement.

Information relating to your insurance policy will be added to the Motor Insurance Database (MID), managed by the Motor Insurers' Bureau (MIB). If you're involved in a road traffic accident (either in the United Kingdom, the European Economic Area or certain other territories), insurers and the MIB may search the MID for relevant information.

It is vital that your correct registration number is shown on the MID. If it is not, you are at risk of having your vehicle seized by the police. You can check that your correct registration number is shown on the MID at www.askmid.com.
